CFMC to Host Farmers Breakfast July 29 at the 2008 Morgan County Fair

July 18, 2008

MORGAN COUNTY, Ind. – Morgan County farmers are invited to enjoy a free breakfast and “food for thought” at the Farmers Breakfast hosted by the Community Foundation of Morgan County, Inc. on Tuesday, July 29. The free event will take place in the Morgan County Beef and Sertoma Building at the Morgan County Fair at 7:30 a.m.

“The farmers breakfast is an important way the community foundation can recognize the farming families around the county,” said Susan Haynes, CFMC president. “Our farmers have helped make Morgan County a wonderful place to live and work, and have helped the community foundation to grow as well.”

Guests will be treated to biscuits and gravy, brats, eggs, fruit, juice, milk and coffee plus a special gift for attending. Maury Williamson of West Lafayette will speak on new farming trends, and another speaker will share ideas about saving taxes with philanthropy.

The breakfast will kick-off the CFMC’s Sponsor of the Day activities at the fair. Foundation board and staff members will be available at the sponsor’s tent all day. Patrons can visit the booth to learn more about the CFMC, donate to the Disaster Relief Fund, and pick up free giveaways.

If individuals wish to donate to the Disaster Relief Fund but are unable to visit the fair on July 29, checks can be made out to the Community Foundation of Morgan County and can be mailed to the foundation at 250 N. Monroe St., Mooresville, IN 46158. Be sure to write Disaster Relief Fund in the memo.
