CFMC Offers Free ‘How to Apply for Grants’ Seminars July 22 and 24

July 18, 2008

MORGAN COUNTY, Ind. – Help is available in July for Morgan County groups and non-profit organizations that would like to apply for a grant from the Community Foundation of Morgan County, Inc. The foundation has scheduled two free seminars, one in Martinsville, and one in Mooresville, to help take attendees through the process.

The seminar will walk people through the application procedure, give examples taken from previous successful applications and hopefully take the mystery out of the process.

The first seminar will be offered on Tues., July 22, from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Morgan County Library main branch at 110 S. Jefferson St. in Martinsville. A repeat of the seminar will be offered on Thurs., July 24 from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Mooresville Public Library at 220 W. Harrison St.

The Community Foundation of Morgan County, Inc. accepts grant applications for projects and arts programs once a year. This year’s schedule will open up the grant application process on August 1, and applications are due on September 5, no later than 4 p.m. in the CFMC office. Grant applications will be available for download on the CFMC Web site at www.cfmconline.org beginning August 1.

More information is available by calling the Community Foundation of Morgan County, Inc. office at (317) 831-1232, toll-free at (877) 822-6958 or on the CFMC Web site at www.cfmconline.org.
